MAKE AN IMPRESSION BEFORE SOMEONE ELSE DOES

COMMUNITY ADVISOR • UP TO £72,500 • BASED LONDON

The threat of terrorism is a real one that comes from a tiny minority of people, whose tactics often involve befriending and influencing vulnerable members of society. But countering this threat requires positive engagement with all our communities to prevent violent extremism from taking root.

We are now looking for someone already actively involved in community work, voluntary or otherwise, and who knows how to get out and meet the right people. You will be the key point of liaison between communities and the Government's counter terrorism efforts. You will help deliver a shared approach to resisting the threats that affect us all.

You will have an awareness of, and willingness to work in the area of Counter Terrorism, with the ability to engage positively with the community and senior stakeholders – particularly at the Department of Communities and Local Government and the Foreign & Commonwealth Office – at a range of levels. Senior Ministers will listen to you; the community will trust you and this relatively new organisation will depend on your contribution to have a significant impact on Counter Terrorism efforts.

For further information please visit our dedicated microsite at www.stopterrorism.co.uk or for an informal, confidential discussion please contact our advising consultants Michael Dobson on 020 7017 0961, Nancy Scott on 020 7017 0915 or James Greengrass on 020 7017 0931.

Closing date: Monday 13th October 2008.
